Castle Bromwich Hall Gardens is a small charity running 10 acres of historic gardens, there is a small staff team but it is largely run by volunteers.

There are volunteering roles across all aspects of this visitor attraction:

lots of different gardening work (light and heavy work)

general site maintenance work in the shop or in the small cafe

help on the entrance tills tour guiding & greeting visitors supporting the education work

Admin. and office work

helping with public events marketing and social media and lots more.

Every month the open morning is the place to find out about us and what volunteering roles are available.

You will meet other volunteers, see the variety of roles which might suit you, get help filling out the forms, have a tour of the site, have a chat with people here.

You can just turn up, but it is best to book. 10 am-12
